

Gabriella M. Earhardt
Director, Supplier Operations
Defense Logistics Agency Energy

Gabriella Earhardt assumed her current duties as the director of Supplier Operations for the Defense Logistics Agency Energy in February 2013, where she spearheads all of the DLA Energy buying units' managing acquisition programs, exceeding $15 billion in annual sales. In addition, she is engaged in the oversight and management of acquisition programs and the field-level execution for end-to-end Class III supply chain support of U.S. and coalition forces in Operations Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom.

Prior to returning to her current assignment, Earhardt served as acting deputy commander of DLA Energy where she was responsible for providing the Department of Defense and other government agencies with comprehensive energy solutions in the most effective and efficient manner possible.

She was also the director of the Procurement Process Support directorate and has worked in various contracting positions within DLA Energy, to include contracting officer in the Overseas Bulk Fuels Division, division chief for the Direct Supply Natural Gas Program and in the Electricity and Utility Privatization programs.

Earhardt began her tenure with DLA Energy in 1993. She is certified in Contracting at Level III under the Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act and is a member of the Defense Acquisition Corps.
